

Submitting Assignment 4

1. Login to GitHub & accept invitation as collaborator

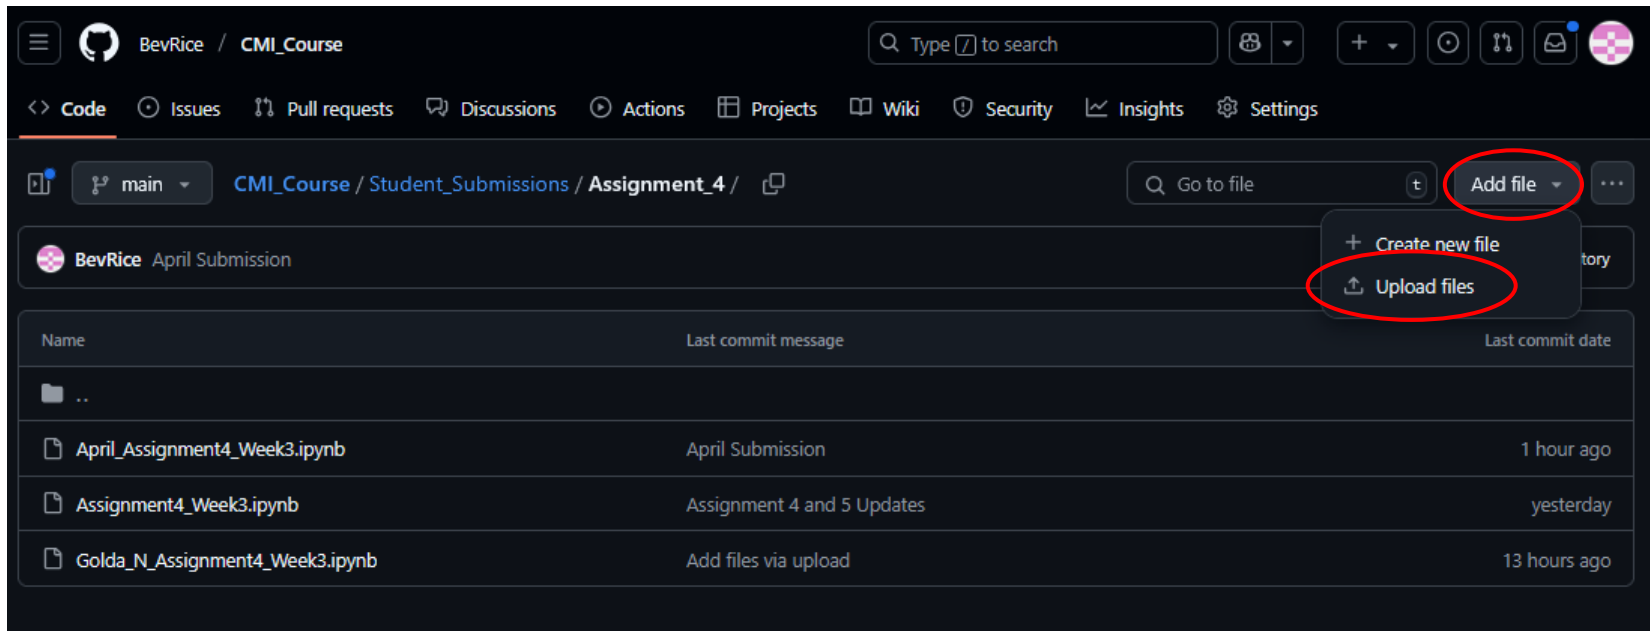

Find invitation to collaborate in Notifications

2. After completing the assignment in google colab, go to File -> Download -> Download .ipynb

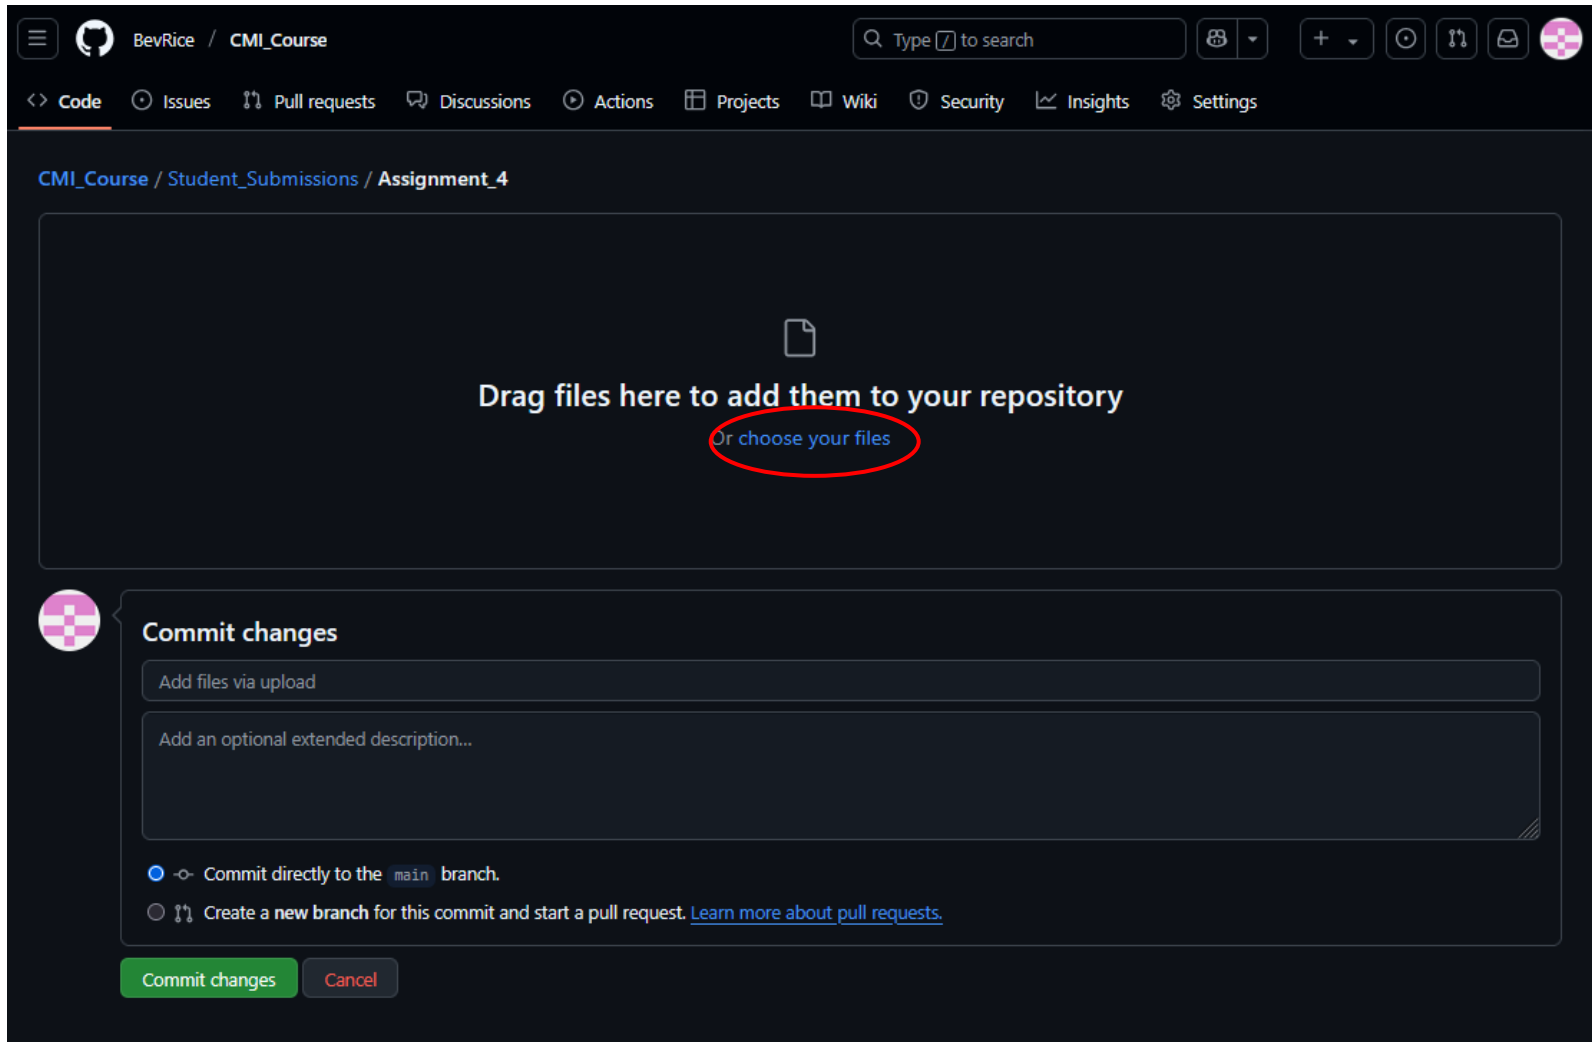

3. Go to the assignment submissions folder and click “Add File” then “Upload Files”

The screenshot shows the GitHub interface for the repository 'BevRice / CMI_Course'. The breadcrumb path is 'CMI_Course / Student_Submissions / Assignment_4 /'. The 'Add file' button is circled in red, and its dropdown menu is open, showing 'Create new file' and 'Upload files' (also circled in red). Below the dropdown, a table lists the files in the 'Assignment_4' directory.

Name	Last commit message	Last commit date
..
April_Assignment4_Week3.ipynb	April Submission	1 hour ago
Assignment4_Week3.ipynb	Assignment 4 and 5 Updates	yesterday
Golda_N_Assignment4_Week3.ipynb	Add files via upload	13 hours ago

4. Drag and drop the file into GitHub or click on "choose your files" and select your ipynb file; please make sure the file name has your first or last name in it otherwise it may overwrite another's assignment

5. Add a comment under "Commit changes" where it says "Add file via upload"; this comment can be "Student X Assignment Y Submission"; then click "Commit changes"
